

Let's Explore!

Use the iPad labels to help answer the questions.

Who were the first people to live on and own the Country on which you are standing?

.....

.....

.....

Can you find a First Nations person on the digital wall?

What is their name?

.....

What are they known for?

.....

.....

Mickey O'Brien is a living descendant of the Kaurna and Narrunga peoples.

THE CENTRE OF DEMOCRACY

Visit the gallery

Institute Building

Corner of North Terrace & Kintore Avenue Adelaide

Open 10am-5pm every day except public holidays

Connect online

 centreofdemocracy.com.au

 @CentreofDemocracy  @CentreDemocracy

 @centreofdemocracy

LET'S EXPLORE

Find the cabinet with feathers in it

1

What is it?

Who wore it?

Did you know? The man who wore this hat was given the nickname the Cockatoo Governor. Do you have a nickname? What does it say about who you are?

Look for a ballot box

2

If you could vote on anything in the world what would it be?

Can you find an item of clothing?

Who wore them?

Why do you think that it is in a museum collection?

3

Did you know? Women in South Australia couldn't vote until 1894, more than 50 years after the colony was settled?

4

Artwork: Tsering Hannaford

Who was Australia's first female Prime Minister?

Can you find her in the gallery?"

Find a poster

5

What interests you about it?

Did you know?

The history of protest posters dates back to the 16th century when Martin Luther and his followers posted Luther's 95 Theses on church doors.

If you were South Australia's Premier, what would you wear to Parliament house in the hot summer?

6

Find a badge

Why have you chosen this one?

If you could make a badge, about something you are really passionate about, what would it look like?

Write or draw your answer here →

Which is your favourite object?

Why did you choose it?

Thanks for exploring with us!

We hope you enjoyed the hunt.